WIPFLI

Guidance from a team who knows manufacturing

Wipfli brings you insightful thinking in critical areas of your business.

From startup to succession

There is a reason why manufacturing and distribution is Wipfli's largest industry practice. We are a trusted advisor to thousands of manufacturers across the country.

Whether it's financial growth, tax optimization or operational excellence you need, our team operates as an extension of your workforce, and you can rely on us for the long term.

Accessibility

We're here to help whenever you need us. Our professionals bring the right combination of knowledge and personal accessibility, and they're always a phone call or short drive away.

Many of our team members come from the manufacturing and distribution industry. They don't just understand your industry challenges – they've lived them. Wipfli is proud of what we call, "large-firm experience with hometown accessibility."

Auditing

Wipfli makes sure our audits are efficient, unbiased and thorough. While we have professionals committed to performing independent audits, we can also bring audit, tax and consulting professionals together to collaborate on all aspects of your business.

Let's get started

Bringing fresh, innovative ideas to help you grow is all part of Wipfli's commitment to creating lasting, positive impact.
